

Subject: Spring Festival Celebration - Feb 16 - Free Admission

You're invited to attend!

The Stony Brook Chinese Students and Scholars Association (SBCSSA) will be holding its 2008 Spring Festival in the Wang Center Theatre at 6:30. The Spring Festival is the most important holiday in East Asia and a time for family reunion and traditional activities. Celebrated in countries like China, Korea, Thailand, and Singapore, the Spring Festival at Stony Brook is expected to be an exciting night with a spectacular display of culture and friendship. The Spring Festival by SBCSSA is one of the GSOs longest funded cultural and social events by one of the oldest graduate clubs at Stony Brook. Last year over 500 people showed up and had a great time. All are welcome and the GSO highly encourages everyone to come.
