

Subject: Adoption and School - Adoptive Families Magazine Resources

Getting ready for the new school year? Let's be proactive and open lines of communication with our new teachers. Looking for tips, advice, or suggestions? Can't find those articles you've saved for years?

Visit Adoptive Families Magazine online for resources on Adoption and School. Simply follow the links provided below:

<http://www.adoptivefamilies.com/school/index.php>

Adoption and School <http://www.adoptivefamilies.com/school>

We've put together a great page of resources for adoption and school. With downloadable handouts and information for your child's teacher, inspiring ideas for adoption presentations and creative approaches to the family tree assignment, advice from experts about development and learning styles, suggested books to read and donate to your child's school, and more, make this your first source for back-to-school preparation.

Featured article

How I Explained Adoption to the First Grade

by Amy Klatzkin

Using a favorite doll and a logic children can follow, one mother enlightens her daughter's curious class.

Early in first grade at my daughter's school, each child is given a special day when she gets to help the teacher in prominent ways and make important choices. My daughter was the first of two adopted children in her class to have a special day, and inevitably questions about adoption came up....read more or download PDF

More About Making an Adoption Presentation at School

Becoming an Advocate at School

Can We Talk: Explaining Adoption in Middle School

How to Explain Adoption to Teachers and Classmates

The Great Back-to-School Kit

17 simple and effective ways to bring adoption into the classroom

A Memo to My Fellow Teachers

When it comes to adoption, instructors need to check their curriculum and their stereotypes.

read more or download PDF

What Your Child's Teacher Needs to Know

by Lois Melina. read more or download PDF

Adoption in the Classroom \(PDF\)

A two-page clip-and-save guide for teachers on adoption in the classroom. Includes a resource guide for parents and recommended books for the school library.

An Educator's Guide to Adoption

S.A.F.E. at School: Support for Adoptive Families by Educators

Teaching the Teachers How one mother set out to educate her town

Is Your Child Ready for School?

She has her backpack, pencils, and notebook. But does she know how to field adoption questions that might come her way?

Tips For Helping Your Child Cope with Intrusive Questions

Sample Letters

Dear Teacher

Even a teacher sensitive to adoption may benefit from having words to say. Here is a sample letter to help you compose your own. read more or download PDF

"I'm a Lot Like You"

In a letter to her son's kindergarten class, a ghost-writing mom explains what it means to be adopted and to have cerebral palsy. read more or download PDF

Helping Kids Handle Tricky Assignments

Tackling Tricky Assignments

Creative solutions to six common assignments. read more or download PDF

The Family Tree

A Forest of Family Trees

School Savvy

Parents should expect school assignments that are difficult for their children. read more or download PDF

Stepping In, Stepping Back

Parents always wonder how they'll cope with awkward school assignments, but they always do. Star of the Week

Fielding questions about adoption at school starts early. Is your child ready? read more or download PDF

Lucy's Family Tree

W.I.S.E. Up! Powerbook

Adoption and Learning

Learn How Your Child Learns

When you connect with your child's learning style, you help him feel more at home.

How to Read Your Child's Mind

When it comes to the way kids learn, one size definitely doesn't fit all. read more or download PDF

Jesse's ABC's

A child adopted at age four needed extra help with reading...

Clearing Hurdles to Learning

For children with learning disabilities, early intervention can make the difference.

How to Get Help at School

When a child has learning problems, often the first step is an Individualized Educational Program. Here's what you need to know. Raising a Bilingual Child

A practical guide to help your child connect to his language heritage.

Book Recommendations from AF Editors

The Best Adoption Books to Donate to Your School or Library

Adoption and the Schools: Resources for Parents and Teachers

Best Friends, Worst Enemies: Understanding the Social Lives of Children

Good Friends are Hard to Find: Helping Your Child Find, Make, and Keep Friends

Forward email

 SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to info@fccli.org by info@fccli.org.

Update Profile/Email Address | Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

Email Marketing by

Families with Children from China - NY, Long Island Chapter | 594 Easton Street | Ronkonkoma | NY | 11779