Dear FCC Long Island:

In the past, members from your chapter have requested information about our annual East Meets West China Adoption Conference. We thought it would be beneficial to share this information with you so you can pass along to your members. Our next EMW Conference will be Saturday, April 18, 2009 in Washington, DC/Baltimore.

The purpose of this conference is education and promoting adoption awareness. This full-day Adoption conference is geared towards educating families in topics such as Attachment & Bonding, Grief & Loss, Medical Issue, the China adoption process and Chinese culture. Our keynote speakers are Dr. Laurie Miller, MD, Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Tufts University School of Medicine, and Dr. Changfu Chang, producer of the "Long Wait For Home" documentary.

It is open to all adoptive families regardless of which agency they are using or planning on using. This is a national conference and we have families from all over the country in attendance. Additionally, families will satisfy 8 hours of Hague Parent Education Training for attending the conference. We think many of your families will greatly benefit from attending and we would greatly appreciate it if you would distribute it to your chapter's members. I have attached our Press Release.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about the next upcoming conference in Washington, DC/ Baltimore. You may also find out more information about the sessions offered at <http://www.emwconference.org/sessions>.

I can be reached at 512-323-9595 ext 3033 or by email at info@emwconference.org.

Thank you for your help spreading adoption education to families!

Warm regards,
Nicole Halliday
