Dr. Amanda Baden on Transracial Adoption

Sunday, January 11th, 2009

1:45 PM - 4:00 PM

The Long Island Region of Families with Children from China is excited to offer a presentation on Transracial Adoption by Dr. Amanda Baden on Sunday, January 11, 2009. In addition to being an adoptee and adoptive mom, Dr. Baden is a university professor, researcher, published author, and clinical practitioner who specializes in adoption. This event is relevant for parents with children of all ages, as well as waiting parents. Please join us as Dr. Baden discusses various topics, including:

- transracial adoption
- talking about adoption with your adopted child, tween, teen
- adoptee development through the lifespan
- psychotherapeutic issues for the adoption triad
- talking about race and culture with your transracially adopted child, tween, or teen
- parenting issues for adoptive parents
- what your adopted children think about but may not say
- searching for heritage, birth family, and personal history internationally: lessons, struggles, and clinical issues
