Culture in the Classroom

Help us enrich our communities and raise awareness.

Have you brought Chinese New Year to your child's classroom?

Perhaps you can help us!

It has been our goal to create a workshop to help interested parents build interactive programs about Chinese Cultural Celebrations that can be shared in our kids' classrooms. Can you help us realize this goal?

We are seeking suggestions and feedback from parents who have ventured into the classroom and have ideas to share.

Our community is our single greatest asset. Just a few minutes of your time can help us become even stronger.

Here's how you can help ...

Simply contact us via e-mail, fax, phone - whatever works in YOUR world.

- Share your ideas, experiences, sources,
- Book Titles, Activities, Coloring Pages, Material Lists, Recipes, Links - whatever!
- What worked, what didn't?
- What grade or age is appropriate or suggested

Please remember to provide your Name and contact info.
We'll compile it and find a way to share with our membership. We'd really love to hear from YOU!

Kindest regards,

Kristen Hayes (e-mail KristenH@fccli.org or call 631.608.8546)
and

Danielle Gallagher (e-mail info@fccli.org or call 631.587.8239)
(fax submissions can be sent to my attention @ 631.666.3166)

Interested in working with us on this project? Volunteers interested in participating in cultural or adoption related awareness are ALWAYS welcome. Contact us today!
