PASSPORT to TAIWAN 2009

the celebration of taiwanese american heritage week in nyc

Since the initiation of the "Passport to Taiwan" festival in 2002, it has become the most important event for the Taiwanese American and the Mandarin Speaking community in the New York Tri-State area.

Tremendous resources have been gathered in order to make the event successful. The festival has since become the largest outdoor Taiwanese event in the entire United States. In New York, the event is viewed as the most organized and entertaining Asian festival.

please join us for a day of festivities
