please help bring Fubing home to Long Island

Dear Friends,

I am writing to you because I know that the children waiting for adoption are near and dear to your heart. I want to tell you about a courageous young boy named, Fubing. He is 11 years old and he is currently living in an orphanage in China. He is as handsome as they get. His family, an active member of FCC-Long Island is working hard to prepare to bring him home.

As you know, the fees associated with adoption can be high and in addition to this, once Fubing comes home, he will need a prosthesis to help him run and play with his brothers and sisters. Most insurance companies do not cover this in its entirety. As a result, the friends of Fubing and his family are hosting a Yard Sale Fundraiser in his honor on August 21 in Amityville, NY. The funds raised will help his family with the final expenses needed to travel as well as some medical needs that will not be covered under insurance. You can help in a number of ways.

+First and foremost, we would like all of your prayers and positive thoughts for Fubing and his family. This will likely be a scary time for him as he transitions from institutionalized care to being part of a large and loving family.

+Secondly, we would be grateful if you dropped off any donations that you may have to be sold at this Yard Sale Fundraiser for Fubing. All proceeds will be giving directly to his family. Donations for the Yard sale may be dropped off at the home of Kristen and Scott Hayes. Their address is 63 Richmond Ave, Amityville, NY 11701. Drop off between Thursday night 8/19 and Saturday morning 8/21.

+Thirdly, if you would like to donate directly to a fund set up in his name through the agency assisting his family, you may send a tax deductible donation to: Associated Services for International Adoption (ASIA), 215 SW Hooker Street, Portland, Oregon 97201. You will also receive a formal letter of thanks from ASIA. Please put Fubing's name in the memo section of your check so that the funds are appropriately designated for him. With your help, we can transform the life of Fubing.

Please come out and support Fubing and his family if you can. Perhaps you will see something at this multi-family fund raiser that you would like to purchase? Each time you look at that item, know in your heart that YOU helped bring a little boy home to his forever family! The Yard sale will be Saturday, August 21, 2010. 9am until 4pm at 63 Richmond Ave, Amityville, NY 11701. The kids have some gathered things to sell to help their new friend and will set up a lemonade stand during the Fundraiser. Come join us celebrate Fubing's life and the hope we have for him as he is prepared for his journey home!

Please contact us directly if you have any questions.
Thank you for your support,
